Living in relationship with God

Marinda Holtzhausen

Stand against the devil and
the devil will run away from you.
James 4:7

When I am weak ...

---

"I have been given trouble in my body. It was sent from Satan to hurt me. It keeps me from being proud.

I asked the Lord three times to take it away from me.

He answered me: "I am all you need.

I give you my loving-favour.

My power works best in weak people."

I receive joy when all these things come to me because of Christ.

For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Life Lessons

"Nobody goes into life expecting they may lose their sight, become suicidal, or have a partial finger amputation.

I truly didn't. I certainly thought the alternative," Marinda muses.

"In truth, I thought that would by no means be me...

and yet it happened."

The fact is, there may be no stereotype for those who battle with these issues.

Marinda makes use of the message of love and hope in her writing and song.

"I realize what my life's motive is,"

She says, "It's to reveal God's love.

If I can assist one individual it's all worth it."

Why I Do This

---

Marinda Holtzhausen' faith in Christ plays a huge role in who she is.

It is that relationship that has helped her conquer many unheard of challenges such as, losing her sight, a partial finger amputation, depression, attempted suicide and more.

She is in no way shy to proclaim gratitude for every good thing God has given her.

God's word for you today:
"I think about you more than you know.
Don't worry, you are safe
in my hands."
